

1 microneedling session

Description

A microneedling session uses fine needles to create micro-injuries on the skin, triggering collagen and elastin production. Lasting 20 to 40 minutes, it starts with skin cleansing and may include numbing cream. Minor redness and sensitivity usually fade in a few days. Results include improved texture, fewer fine lines, and a brighter complexion. Multiple sessions are often needed for best results.

Date Created

April 6, 2026

Author

rose-and-remed-admin